

There is very little diversity on the radio these days. Almost no airtime is given over to local issues. Playlists and news items are kept bland as not to offend advertisers. This rule change will just make the situation worse.